FRANSCHHOEK

A Stay to Savour...

Sharing a meal is an essential part of any time away from home and Franschhoek is the culinary capital of South Africa. This is our valley's heritage, and each day our chefs at La Clé create homemade delights and abundant spreads to celebrate the lifestyle of Franschhoek. In Franschhoek Village (and further afield), the feasting continues with a variety of award-winning restaurants and superb wineries to visit.

OUR FOOD PHILOSOPHY

The food philosophy of La Clé is founded on the understanding that food brings people together from all over the world to share a connection. Our professional chef is inspired by the local lifestyle of the valley and we want all our guests to experience the dynamic culinary landscape of South African food.

Part of our core belief is that the closer to home our produce is sourced, the more delicious it tastes, and this is only enhanced by sharing a meal around a table together. Our cuisine is dynamic and fresh, from local-style 'braais' to laden breakfast tables, personalised picnics, homemade delights, baked goodies, and private dining and Shared Table dinners on select evenings.

We welcome you to live like a local, indulge your senses and enjoy a truly memorable culinary experience in Franschhoek.
